Proverbs 13:20 New Living Translation (NLT)

20 Walk with the wise and become wise; associate with fools and get in trouble.

Proverbs 1:1-7 New Century Version (NCV)

The Importance of Proverbs

¹ These are the wise words of Solomon son of David, king of Israel.

² They teach wisdom and self-control; they will help you understand wise words.

³ They will teach you how to be wise and self-controlled and will teach you to do what is honest and fair and right.

⁴ They make the uneducated wise and give knowledge and sense to the young.

⁵ Wise people can also listen and learn; even they can find good advice in these words.

⁶ Then anyone can understand wise words and stories, the words of the wise and their riddles.

⁷ Knowledge begins with respect for the Lord, but fools hate wisdom and discipline.

Proverbs 9:12 New Century Version (NCV)

¹² The wise person is rewarded by wisdom, but whoever makes fun of wisdom will suffer for it."

Proverbs 14:12 New American Standard Bible (NASB)

¹² There is a way which seems right to a man, but its end is the way of death. It ends in destruction. It ends in a dead end.

There are four classes of people in Proverbs 1 but Wisdom was shouting to three types of people in Chapter 1.

Proverbs 1:22 New King James Version (NKJV)

²² "How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity?

For scorners delight in their scorning,
And fools hate knowledge.
